The North-West.

News Culled for The Progress by our own correspondents.

INDIAN HEAD.

—The elevator has been taking in over 1,000 bushels daily.

—Miss Grant, sister of Indian Agent Grant, has arrived from the east.

—Mr. Belford, of Mossomin, has been in town on experimental farm business.

—Mr. James Gibbons, who has been in Dakota since last May, arrived home.

—Indian Head Lodge of Masons met in regular communication on Monday evening last.

—The meat market has been greatly enlarged and refitted by Mr.
W. H. Lee, the proprietor.

—Mr. Insinger, of the firm of Burchier & Insinger, has gone to Europe on a visit to Amsterdam.

—The wheat market has not fully set in yet, farmers are waiting for more snow to make sleighing better.

—Special thanksgiving services were held every night last week in the Presbyterian church and were well attended.

—Business has been quite lively here this fall, and as a consequence, a number of building projects are in contemplation.

—Rumor says that the Northwest experimental farm is to be located on the section immediately north of the C. P. R. tank here.

—Large shipments of grain have been made from here for the Bell Farm destined for the eastern markets. Good prices for produce have been realized by the settlers for their splendid crop.

—The annual general meeting of the Indian Head and Qu'Appelle Valley Agricultural society was held here on Saturday and was largely attended by the neighboring farmers and a few friends from Qu'Appelle station. The treasurer's report shows the society to be in a sound financial position, and that sums amounting to over $700 have been distributed in prizes. The following were duly elected office bearers for the ensuing year: President, Major Bell; 1st vice-president, Peter Ferguson; 2nd vice-president, W. R.
Motherwell; secretary-treasurer, R.
Crawford; directors, E. J. Brooks, W. Broley, C. H. Bonestell, W. R.
Boyd, R. Insinger, W. Kirkland, J.
Harvey, T. Donnelly, A. T. Mc
Lellen, D. Ralston, and T. Skinner.

MOSSOMIN.

—A dancing circle has been organized, and a first class winter's enjoyment is before us.

—From 1,500 to 2,000 bushels of wheat are being taken in daily at the elevator here. The estimate here was 200,000 bushels, but this is going to be below the actual result.

—A through tea train a few days ago ran into or against the pipe of the water tank, which had been left in a horizontal position over the track by some one who had been surprisedly helping himself.
The consequence was a broken headlight and several injured persons.

—The case of lunacy, referred to previously, has been the subject of an enquiry by the magistrate, with the result that the party was adjudged to be insane and was committed to the N. W. M. P. awaiting the pleasure of the Lieutenant-Governor, which is the only course open in the Territories.

FORT QU'APPELLE.

—Mr. Ballenger's stable, on Broadway caught fire on the 3rd, but was extinguished before much damage was done.

—We regret to chronicle the death of Miss Nora, eldest daughter of Mr. T. W. Jackson, on the 5th inst., aged eight years.

BROADVIEW.

—Eph. Blake lately took in a corkload of Ontario sheep to Crescent colony and sold them at eight dollars each.

—Beef is likely to be plentiful therefore cheap this winter. Pork, however, is not over-abundant and will probably rate high.

—Grain comes in but slowly, farmers being now engaged in making buildings snug for themselves and their cattle during the winter.

—The Donaldson brothers returned this morning from the York and Crescent colonies, bringing with them a drove of young cattle and some beef animals, which they purchased from the settlers.

—The C. P. R. have found an abundant supply of spring water at the east end of the town, close to the track and are engaged in digging a reservoir deep enough to ensure a continuous supply during the winter. The gang at work could not pump out the water fast enough to enable the men to keep digging, and a powerful steam pump had to be sent for. A bottle of the water was sent to Winnipeg for analysis, and proved to be of the purest quality. A similar spring at the west end has for years supplied the inhabitants with soft water, for washing and cooking purposes.

MOOSE JAW.

—The Occidental hotel has been thoroughly repaired.

—A fine covered skating rink has been erected and will be well patronized this season.

—H. A. Perley, well-known along the C.P.R., is making the C.
P. R. dining hall first-class.

—Large quantities of wheat are now being shipped by our local buyers, R. L. Alexander and T. B.
Barker.

—A petition has been presented to Mayor Gordon asking him to call a public meeting to discuss certain parts of the Northwest liquor laws.
The general feeling seems to be opposed to the importation of eastern liquor.

—Hugh McDougall has just returned from his ranch at Beaver Creek. He was accompanied by Mr. H. Pronce, one of the leading settlers of Saskatchewan, who is about to start for England. It is understood that Mr. Pronce goes to the old country as emigrant agent in the interest of the Temperance Colonization Society.

—The prospects of Moose Jaw have been much improved this year, no one here seems to doubt that this part of the great Northwest is destined to become a successful grain raising district, the land lying to the north being particularly adapted to farming. Where the soil has been properly cultivated and seed well put in, the yield of wheat has been as high as thirty-five bushels to the acre, and have also yielded well. This season was so free from frost that all grain sown in the proper time was thoroughly ripened.
The root crop has been excellent.
While the harvest has been so encouraging the ranches springing up around promise future wealth for this district. The hills about ten miles south make excellent wintering places for stock, small fires being found through these hills.

REGINA.

—The brass band has been reorganized.

—A new riding school is to be built near the site of the old one.

—Messrs. Hamilton and Smith are canvassing briskly for the may-orality.

—Mr. Hunter, of the Bank of Montreal, has gone east on a three months cruise.

—Regina glee club is a flourishing organization. It was organized about two months ago.

—The value of buildings and other improvements in the town for the present year is nearly $100,000.

—The new toboggan slide is to cost $275. It will be 40 feet high and 120 feet long. The site selected is opposite the land offices.

—Mr. Frederick White, Comptroller of the Mounted Police, has been here investigating the causes of the fire. It appears that the fire must have originated from a defective stove pipe. The burned building cost $42,000.

—Major McGibbon, inspector of Indian agencies, has returned from the west. He left Regina September 8th on a tour of inspection through south-western Alberta. Major McGibbon says he has completed a satisfactory inspection of stations four and seven.

—The news telegraphed to the Leader from Ottawa to the effect that the Minister of the Interior has decided that settlers shall pay one-third of the payment on pre-emption on the first of January, one-third a year later, the last third two years later, has been very acceptable to many in this vicinity and doubtless to many in other localities.

—Mr. McGirr has been all over our contiguous Indian reserves with Mr. Vankoughnet, deputy of the Superintendent-General of Indian Affairs. The deputy was highly pleased with the condition, progress and general prospects of the red man, and in a private letter to a friend here is warm in his high opinion of the business tact of the chief clerk.

The Farmer of St. Paul has no equal among the weekly agricultural papers of the country for the people of the Northwest. Its columns are filled with the agreeable news of the day, contributions from practical men and women in the different branches of farm work, facts in farming as demonstrated by our agricultural colleges and experiment stations; carefully prepared crop and market reports, choice literature, wholesome discussions of household topics, etc. The Farmer bears unmistakable evidence of careful editorial supervision in every department, and in its editorial discussion of the topics of the day it is broad, intelligent and unbiased. It is liberally illustrated and is printed in neat form on excellent paper. In price $1.50 per year, it is as cheap as any first class weekly paper can be furnished, and that is the only cheap thing about it. In brief, The Farmer is a paper that should be found in every country and village home in the Northwest. It is suggestive, thoughtful and reliable.

—See our dolls—all sizes.

—An excellent assortment of new dolls, cheap at The Farmer's store.

—Greatest Kidney Cure and Dr.
Clark's Sarsaparilla have been found in the Northwest than any other medicines ever sold.

—New toys and fancy goods in great variety just opened at The Farmer's store.

Address, JAMES WEIDMAN, Qu'Appelle Station, Assin.
R. J. WEIDMAN, Proprietor.

The snow flies and this year's Manitoba wheat crop is being carried to the eastern markets by the C. P. R., and still the whistle of the Red River Valley Railway locomotive is not heard in the land.
The people of Winnipeg wanted a third railway from that city to the international boundary line when one could do the job. They wanted to bust the C. P. R. monopoly and declared that they must have the railway, even at the price of their heart's blood. They went so crazy over the affair that the heads of some of their citizens were turned politically. Like a spoiled child the city was bound to get the railway at no matter what cost—to somebody else. Its citizens howled for an institution that was shoat solely for their own benefit and yet were unwilling to contribute one third the cost. After trying all summer to borrow the money to build the railway, the provincial government made a satisfactory contract to build the railway on condition that the Winnipeggers furnished one third the money.
But there came the rub; they were ready to sacrifice anything; rebellion, bayonets and gore were freely talked of; but when it came down to paying part of the cost of what they wanted, they concluded they could stand being ground under the iron heel of monopoly a while longer without being inconvenienced very much.

The Rossification of the Regina Journal is becoming more complete.
The Progress some weeks ago in an article made a statement the truth of which is objected to by no one except the Journal and its sponsor.
Because we did not see fit to give names of those we referred to at the bidding of the Journal that paper then into a rage and tries to involve us in the discussion of a fact denied by none but those who are so blinded by party passion that they could see nothing good in their grandmothers if they per chance had any leaning toward Tory views.
If the Journal wants to try off the handle every time a public officer is commended, no one will question its right to do so, but the Progress declines being involved in a discussion, the only result of which would be to feed the party malice of a rabid Grit newspaper.

Morning Call: The appointment of Mr. S. L. Belden as inspector of ralls in the Northwest territories is an excellent one. There is no other man in Canada who has as thorough a knowledge of prison management, and the placing of these institutions under his supervision is a guarantee that they will be well managed.

THE GOVERNORSHIP.

Battleford Herald: It is now apparently decided that Mr. Dewdney shall be retained as Lieutenant Governor of the Territories until April.
It would be a good thing for this country if he could be retained until the new system of government is decided upon and put into motion.
He has so thorough a knowledge of the country and its requirements, and has so methodized the affairs of government, that it will be a matter for regret if he is removed before he has an opportunity of introducing the new plan. There is no man outside the Territories who can bring to bear even a limited knowledge of Territorial public affairs; and to appoint such a one to the Governor-ship at this juncture of affairs would be to run the risk of breaking up the harmonious working of the present time and introducing chaos and confusion.

GRIP'S COMIC ALMANAC

For 1888 has been received, and is certainly a credit to the publishers.
The six calendar pages are from designs by J. W. Bengough, and the whole series are about the best specimens of caricature drawing that we have yet seen from the pen of this clever artist. A. H. Howard, W. Bengough and other artists contribute sketches—a series of pictures illustrating the house that Hash Built being particularly good, while the reading matter throughout is even better than has appeared in previous years. The price is only 10 cents a copy, and you can get it at the bookstores or send direct to Grip office, Toronto.

ABOUT ADVERTISING.

Experience has proved that it pays to advertise, says an exchange.
We quite agree with it. The great majority of successful business men have built up their trade by judicious advertising. Advertising has brought wealth to men, even though the goods they advertised were not first-class. But if you have a good thing and advertise it well, success is almost certain. Without doubt the best advertising medium is the newspaper. It goes into thousands of homes and is read by thousands of people. And the thousands of readers of a newspaper have thousands of wants. What more natural than that when people want groceries, dry goods, clothing, furniture, jewelry, etc., they should glance over the advertising columns of the newspaper to discover where they can best get their wants supplied.
There are other advertising mediums which are good in their way, but the newspaper is the best of all.
Advertising, however, is an art, and it will pay business men well to study it, not alone in a general way, but with a view to its special application to their own particular business. The manufacturer or dealer should study the announcements of successful advertisers, with a view to "catching on" to the methods of wording, etc., that attract attention where others fail.
To sum up: Advertising is necessary, generally speaking, to success in business; in order to get the best value for money expended in advertising, business men must choose the best medium—the newspaper—and they must make a study of the art.

Winnipeg Sun: The Holt contract, so far as it depends upon receiving assistance from the city of Winnipeg, is at an end, and, as the Government will scarcely be able to raise funds elsewhere, matters may be said to be in chaos. Whether or not a mistake has been made in thus allowing things to drift time alone can tell; certainly there is nothing to be gained by useless re-riminations. Want of confidence in the Norwegian Government is the rock upon which the project has split.

Prohibition.

Northwest Prohibitory Alliance.

THE PROGRESS from its first establishment over two years ago, has advocated Prohibition, and has given the present Northwest law a steady support. This paper was also most prominent in advertising the recent successful Temperance convention, and it was with pleasure we announced the formation of the Northwest Prohibitory Alliance.
We purpose devoting a considerable portion of our space toward promoting the formation of branches of the Alliance, and the publication of reports of meetings in its interest, as well as other temperance matter.
In doing so we ask the support of all who are opposed to the introduction of a license system into the Territories. We would also request the favor of reports of meetings and other correspondence on this important question.

Pheasant Forks Ahead.

First Branch of the Alliance by Rev. A. Andrews.

On Monday the 28th ult., Rev.
A. Andrews delivered a lecture at Pheasant Forks, on the present state of the liquor question in the Territories. The attendance was good and the interest taken in the subject was very hearty.

A branch of the Northwest Prohibitory Alliance was formed with Rev. C. S. Willis, for president.
Thirteen gentlemen gave in their names as members of the branch.
At the close of the meeting a very hearty vote of thanks was given to Mr. Andrews for his lecture, and a desire was expressed for copies of the constitution of the Alliance for distribution through the Colony.

CALGARY

Not as Bad as Represented.

Much having been said about the violation of the "new" liquor law in Calgary, following from the pen of a member of the British House of Commons will be of interest:

In a fifth letter to the Barrow News, Mr. W. S. Cairne, M. P., now in Canada, writes about Calgary, the capital of the grazing country along the foothills of the Rocky Mountains. He says, "The great future of Calgary society is the overwhelming predominance of the male sex.
Hardly a woman is to be seen on the streets. The men have not yet had time to think about matrimony; that will follow in a year or two, when the many adventurers settle down to whatever they are fit for.
Neither did I see any old men. The whole population appears to be under thirty years of age, and almost entirely English. The hotel at which we stayed was full to overflowing, many sleeping two in a bed and all young men; my daughter was the only lady in the house."

He goes on to say: "If the Leland hotel had possessed a liquor bar it would have been impossible for decent, quiet people to stay there, and a similar town to Calgary across the frontier, in Idaho, Montana or Dakota, would have been one long avenue of liquor saloons, low dancing and music halls. The same class of population frequent Calgary—cowboys, farmers, idlers waiting their chance, swarm everywhere—yet the town is as quiet as an English country village. The popular amusement is the Salvation Army, commanded by a captain and three competent young women, who were treated everywhere with marked respect. I went to their meeting in the evening.
They marched around the town in their usual fashion, passing through crowds of cowboys and similar fellows, without meeting with a jeer or a coarse word, and when they entered their barracks all the men in the place swarmed in after them to the tune of five or six hundred, took their seats quietly, joined heartily in the chorus of hymns, which they seemed to know by heart, and evidently enjoyed themselves thoroughly. I conversed with several of the audience coming out, and they all spoke in the warmest terms of the officers of the army in Calgary, and it would evidently fare ill with any cowboys or idler who ventured to say a rude word to any of the halldulh lasses.

My evening at the Calgary barracks strengthened the high opinion I hold with regard to the Salvation Army.

Mr. Cairne adds: "I think nothing has impressed me on my journey so much as the moral tone and great responsibility of this crude population, composed almost entirely of young men whose occupation is rough, who had, many of them, come into the town after months of hard life on the prairie, and who might naturally unbend for a little fun.
If liquor were sold, Calgary would be one of the rowdiest places in the Dominion. Prohibition makes it one of the quietest, most respectable and law-abiding places, with the Salvation Army barracks as its most popular place of entertainment. Of course, the existence of a small amount of secret drinking mikes in some quarters a cry for a license law but I am quite sure that if a license law were passed for the Northwest Territory it would be rendered useless by the universal adoption of the prohibitory clauses of the Scott Act.

posed to give his political opponents some little share of the crumbs of office. Following close upon the ### Stimulants in Arctic Regions.

Lieut. Greely remarked that "breathing air of such intense coolness had something of the effect produced by breathing pure oxygen. As for pulmonary troubles, he heard no complaint of them while the party was at Fort Conger, in Lady Franklin bay, at a latitude of 82.8, where the first two years were spent. Even simple car-diacs were unknown, the only thing from which the men suffered being occasional rheumatism and stiffness of muscles and joints. The party had fecund appetites during all the long journey in the north, each man eating with relish three meals of animal food and two lunches every day, and craving for fat, though not to the extent which some Arctic travelers report. Not even when the thermometer registered 60 degrees below zero did these men indulge in crude blubber or tallow candies, which tradition has designated as the customary food of Arctic voyagers; nor was even pemmican regarded as a rare and dainty dish by them. Canned meat of which they had an abundance during the first two years, and a steak or ragout from the walrus, seal, or polar bear, were prized as the essential conditions of well-being. As for stimulants, liquors, they were used with great moderation, and doled out to the members of the expedition as occasion seemed to demand, and only when some unusual exertion or exposure aroused some extraordinary fatigue or prostration. As means to fortify the system against cold or brace it up for forced marches, whisky, rum, and other alcoholic stimulants were regarded as of little benefit."—Medical Record.

Russian Official Life.

I wonder if the reports of the corruption of Russian official life are all true. I remember a gentleman connected with an enterprise having an establishment in a Russian Pacific port, telling me of the miserable condition of the place and the people.
"Does the government do nothing for them?" I asked.
"Yes; that is, the government gives an appropriation, but the place never gets the benefit of it."

"The officials. There was a government there once who received an appropriation of some 60,000 rubles (the equivalent of $100,000) for the place.
He had no place to keep it—no bank—he built a brick kiln of masonry on the garden or back-yard of his official residence, which was completely closed with brick or stone. It was never opened."

"I don't understand."

"Another governor came out and took this one's place. He did not dare to open that masonry, so it remains closed till this day."

"Why?"
"Because the money is not there. I never saw put in, and the officials have to stand in with one another."—San Francisco Chronicle.

THE MONARCH WELL AUGER.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Monarch well auger in another column. This well auger is without doubt, the most practical, powerful, durable, simplest, fastest working, easiest running, and at the same time the most economical machine for this class of work ever produced. These augers are made to bore any size well desired 6 inches to 44 inches in diameter; they are the only well auger made with automatic bits, that bore inside of the curb or pipe, thus allowing the curb or pipe to sink as fast as the well is bored.
They run very light, bore and drill very rapidly in any and every strata underlying the earth, no matter how hard or how difficult to work of whatever the character or of whatever section of the country it may be located, they will bore to the depth of 1500 feet. They have an improved hoisting machine, which raises the tools three times faster than any other ever put up on the market.

THE STARR KIDNEY PILL.

To Relieve the Suffering.

"The successful firm known as the Starr Kidney Pill Company, of Toronto, are about to introduce their new and reliable proprietary medicines into this province. They manufacture Dr. Starr's Kidney Pill for lame, weak and sore backs, which have been sold long and extensively throughout Manitoba, Ontario, the lower provinces and in England. The cures effected by these pills are said to be marvellous, in relieving and curing those—said to be marvellous—diseases known as diabetes and Bright's disease cases of the kidney. A leading medical N. W. T. says these pills are certainly the best remedy ever tried in his locality for kidney or urinary disease. These kidney pills ought to have a large sale in this province, as there are many miners, fishermen and railroad men afflicted with kidney disorders, to say nothing of its prevalence among other classes of our people. The same company also manufacture numerous other medicines for the cure of other of the many ills which flesh is heir to. A general agent will be appointed for the province. We wish the company success."—Victoria Daily Times, Sept. 9, 1886.

—A Christmas draw will take place at Whiting Bros. on Thursday evening, the 22nd inst. at 20 o'clock, for five ornamented red fruit cakes. Sixty numbers will be drawn, five of which take the cakes. Tickets 25 cents.

—Those members of the toboggan club, who have not paid their annual dues are requested to do so at once, so that the committee can purchase toboggans and get the slide in order for the season. Receipts to be had with the treasurer, Mr. G. B. Murphy. According to one of the rules of the club the name of any member whose dues are not paid by the 20th inst., will be posted and he will be liable to a fine for each month he is in arrears.

—The resolution of the municipal council in reference to well-boring was sent to the Minister of the Interior and the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Winnipeg. Replies have been received from both which give reason to believe that a well-boring apparatus will be furnished. The reply from the Department says that they are in communication with the Commissioner in reference to the matter. The Commissioner says he is in communication with the party in charge of the apparatus at Regina to ascertain whether it can be sent to Qu'Appelle, and if not, he would lay the matter before the Minister of the Interior and endeavor to obtain relief from other sources.

—Referring to our information last week as to the formation of a singing class, Mr. Sutherland requests us to intimate that he wishes to form a class for the study of some easy cantata or other musical work, which he proposes to have rendered in public as soon as the class is sufficiently practiced, and in connection with this class he will also have an elementary class for those who are not versed in music and who wish to learn to read music at sight, or to improve themselves in that art. Those who are desirous of joining such a class will do well to see Mr. Sutherland on the subject, or to intimate their desire of doing within the next ten days so that he may be enabled to advise whether his scheme is practicable. The class fees are we believe as lenient as to be well with in the reach of every one. We heartily recommend this move to the readers of our papers. As the opportunities of pleasant recreation afforded the inhabitants of the town are limited, one like this which promotes both instruction and entertainment, deserves we think special support. We wish Mr. S. all success.

—Dolls from 2 for 5 cents up at THE PROGRESS store.

—Mr. R. H. Shore proposes to have another shooting match soon.

—Being determined to do the Christmas card trade the prices are put down lower than anywhere else. Call and see at THE PROGRESS store.

—Mr. J. Longpre intended leaving on a visit to Montreal on Tuesday last, but the C. P. R. was unable to accommodate all who applied for excursion tickets, and he was consequently delayed till next Tuesday when another excursion will be run.

—The Methodist Sunday School will give their annual Christmas entertainment on Friday evening, the 23rd inst. Instead of the usual Christmas tree the decoration will be formed on ladders, sometimes called "Jacob's ladder." There will be singing, recitations and dialogues, and the distribution of presents by Santa Claus. Parents and friends are requested to make their presents by means of the Christmas ladder. As experience has shown that it is unwise to permit of trifling articles to be placed on a Christmas tree, the committee in charge of the ladder will permit of nothing being placed on it except real presents, and will rigidly exclude everything that would tend to hurt any one's feelings. Everybody is invited to come. Admission—adults 25 cents, children of every denomination free.
